Power, and Naked Greed

When first we practice to deceive..."

NEW VOLUME, NEW GAMES!
FREMEN TAKE DUNE!

8 Jan 95

Yes, Volume V is here and with it some new gambiaras. With peace negotiations beginning in "Borne 41", it's time to pick up sides for "Borne 42". Signed up are Westcott, Osborne, and Arafat but we obviously still need four more. (Need country preferences from those and anyone interested in playing.)

The "Cerulean" Bourge will open in conjunction with "Borne 42" if there is enough interest. The same rules will apply as in "Baldorne" except the currency talent would also rise (or fall) at a rate of 1:10 for every foreign supply center captured (or lost) and change 1:10 for every home center.

"Gigameek" has ordered Epoch US, so should finish next month. Signed up for "Jebellens" the next HISTORY OF THE WORLD game are Weiss, Farrow, Zodia, and Carpenter with two or more openings available as Carpenter's mini-sub has expired. From those (need color preferences and votes on the optional rules given on p. 15).

Congratulations to Wayne Morrison for his second consecutive DUNE victory both as the Fremmen. Will entertain the possibility of another DUNE game. Anderson, Weiss, Osborne, and Byden are signed up. We need two or three more (Bene Tleilasu 7-player variant anyone?) Send your faction preferences, promises set up, and BO prediction and your rules/charter alliances should be alloted or allowed to win.

Interest seems lacking in a KREMLIN sequel, so we'll shelve that for the moment.

Will start a basic game of MERCHANT OF VENUS next time, so I need preferences list for games from Guss, Puffenberger, Woldsmann, Chintary, Weiss, and Byden. Others may apply in case those numbers decline. If we don't get four players, we'll probably try to start a MAGIC REALM game (minimum six players) or 1826 (minimum of 4 players), probably N, same rules as E, yet different board, BRB, and perhaps a distribution.

HISTORY OF THE WORLD players should note my list of observations on p. 15. I'll be using them to condense the game reports.

SUB PRICE INCREASE: Effective this issue, the sub price is raised from $6/yr to $10.50/yr. The purely e-mail sub remains $1/yr. Existing subscriptions will not be affected except for issues past Vol V, #12. Don't thank me, thank the USPS.

ALTERNATE ALERT: Razzarday has NM7'd again. Available are the French portfolios in "Borne VI" and "Borne VII", come one, come all. In order to encourage vote flow, any applicant for the "VI" position must vote "No" to all proposals this season.

BORIS'S BULLETIN BOARD

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH: One whose general is capable, and not interested with by the ruler will be victorious.
---Sun-tzu---

The Zine Register, hobbyist's semiannual review of all known gaming sites in North America and most of the world is due out in March. This is an excellent source to go shopping for a place to play your favorite game. And the editor is encouraging everyone to send reviews, opinions, what have you, of the sites you find. Tell him what you like or dislike about Boris The Spider, COD Medical Journal, Cogniscient, Making Love is a Game, Starlands, Starfiedria, Protocore, River City, Railroad Gazette, S.O.B. Standard Gauge, Wrigo, Worship by Sea, Zero Sum, or whatever other site you go. (See p. 17 for details. (How was that for multiple plugs?))

Tom Padilo's COD Medical Journal is looking for some PAX BRITANNICA players.

BOOS & KNOBS

This month's Madame Bokhan Press Excellence Award goes to Mark Fruth for his "Knoobies" and game statement.

This month's Mr Har Super-Buddy Bomb goes to Tony Razzarday for his double NMR

DEADLINE FOR ALL GAMES IS NOON (CST) 4 FEB 95

Peace Proposed French Mutiny! Spring 1911

195485

WALL STREET JOURNAL--Peace talks are set to begin in Washington to end 11.3 years of bloodshed in Europe. Austria will certainly demand important concessions, but her tactical situation is weak. The rogue Russian F 10N has NA7 and TUN defenceless, the British can readily delay America's Atlantic fleets until her own F DEN and SOL can be brought to bear, and even that lovely French fleet threatens to undermine Austrian threats on BR3. The coming votes shall be interesting, particularly if the French sailors refuse to let their president attack.

FRONT MOVEMENTS

Austria retreats to Gal-Rus. Russia retreats to Bel-Pru. Austria builds A TRI and A UIC. England builds A LON and F LPI. Russia builds A RUS and F BR7.

AUS (Mozambique): A Gal-Par, F Par-Mid, F Spieser, S F Par-Mid, A Sea 3 A Sig-Rus, (A Bar-Mur), A Sil-Pru, (A Sud S A Ser), A Ser S A pud, F Ace S F Sig-Aus, F Van-Aus, A Mar S F Spieser, (A Bar-Gal), A Tri-Ven, A Vis S A Ser.

ENG (York): A Sea 3 A Sig-Rus, (A Sig-Mun), F Den-Pal, F Eng C A Lon-Pic, F Bar-Nrg, F Sea-Dan, F Nth-Yol, F Stracy B, A Lon-Pic, F Lpi-Tri.

FRS (Mauritius): ENG: F Lpi-His.

RUS (Anderson): A Far S A Rum, A Rum S A Gal-Bed, A Pru-Mar, (A Gal-Bud), F Reg-Too, A Mos-Bav, F Can-Iny, A Bul S A Rom.

Orders in brackets fail; d = unit destroyed due to lack of valid retreat; imp = impossible; neu = unit not so ordered; nap = no such player; neu = no such unit; uic = off the board; dis = unit on the move, r-??? = unit is dislodged; u = unharmed.

An Austrian/English Draw, an American/English/Polish draw, and a concession to Austria have been proposed. Submit your votes with your orders. RMR = "Yes" to all. No vote received is an abstention. A single "no" vote will defeat each proposal. If none of two or more plans, we abstain. The proposals will take effect after the Fall turn, so a win by conquest is possible.

See next time for votes and orders for Fall 1911.

EMBASSY STAY

VIENNA: The Austrian forces are distracted with the French homeland and their commanders will be reprimanded unless they turn their attention to the real threat, the Russians and cheap American beer and wine.

FRENCH RIBT!
QUINTON: STARS RUSSIA

viii

Spring 1983

1964.211

CLARE BOGGE--The French, fed up with M. Tardieu's do-nothing, policy on the war of course calls a strike (and mandatory ration) to protest the action. Result: more rationing. Oh figure. Lucky for them the English are engaging the Russians who are fighting a two-front war against the Brits in the North and the rapidly disappearing Turks in the South. And it would seem that too much time in the haven has addled the Grand Turk's brains. But for the French paralysis, Italy might have slipped into the Atlantic and begun full scale looting of the French and English Atlantic coasts. And since Russia is tied up in the North and the South, who do you guess is controlling the Russian middle?

NOTE: Marcia Victoria's 14 result negated for extra space she was trying to get, and was dropped by CDM 4-2 for Turn 3. lucky for her to not attack him! Above we expect her 18 as -1. but MVI is just too fast! see Rule 7.32.

Yes, Rule 28.3 is in effect. We will have more a chance of the race and a better winner. (there are more races we'll continue playing with the animals carrying forward from race to race). The Piscator faction will be able to bet after the 1st and 2nd rounds (as per Rule 28.11 which will be the horse who has their two eggs bet. Since the odds aren't altered by these bets.

FAIS: F. Maxinus 14-bred. Melthina III kip gather Megama Davidus stood out of these corners.

STELLAR CONQUEST

The games are presently waiting:

PLESH GORDON--Combat & Production orders for Turn 38 and Orders for Turn 37-40.

SIMON WAGITAPP--Combat orders for Turn 34 and orders for Turns 35-38.

Please expedite your orders. The time you wait is lost (as much) if sure.

Zine Register 24

Time to gather data once again!

First off, ZR's editor has moved!

Peta Goughan, 12344 Darnest Avenue #7, Concord CA 94520-3481; home phone (510) 825-2165, fax (510) 825-3419; email at goughan@netcast.com

Next issue due in early March.

EDITORS! Now is the time to inform me about your zine (in 3) can be included and reviewed in Zine Register 24. If I already know about your zine, you should find enclosed a data sheet on [E] our (guidelines for filling it out are at the bottom of this page). If you edit a zine but don't get an info sheet from me, you can get into ZR by sending me three sample issues of your zine before February 15.

READERS! If you wish to help in the production of the postal game hobby's directory and review, write big your reviews of the amateur zines you set and send them in before February 15.

When writing reviews, it's much more important to get your impressions about zines: your likes and dislikes, than it is to get technical data like size or cost. However, if you know of a zine which was not listed in the last Zine Register send all the details you can, especially addresses—we may already know about them but why take any chances? If needed, submissions may be made by mail, or by airtel file (IBM or Macintosh) on 3.5 disks.

7 December 1994

EVERYONE! Not only do I want you to review amateur postal game zines, but I also would like

- reviews of Zine Register itself—what's right or wrong with it?
- reviews of the hobby for 1994—write up the most noteworthy events and people of the year for publication in our Year In Review.
- subscriptions!! If you want to get ZR24 as soon as it comes out, send your not tending to get it, then send $3 ($5 for those overseas).

New Regime

After this issue, there will be a new Zine Register editor: Michael Lowrey. There will certainly be changes in ZR besides its format when Michael takes over—he will have to decide whether to continue the Zine Bent service and several of our ZR feature sections. Please support him as well as you've supported me.

Publicity stunts

I hope that Dipsine publishers will reprint the top section of this flyer. If you're a zine editor and you don't have room for this sheet, would you please mention ZR to your readers?

Thanks for your help in making this a true hobby service!
